

St Margaret's College
Balanced foundations, bright futures.

Psychology Teacher Full-time, Permanent

St Margaret's College offers a unique education for girls from Year 0 through to Year 13, both boarding and day girls. We offer students a dual academic pathway with NCEA and the International Baccalaureate Diploma and a strong emphasis on wellbeing and pastoral care as well as academic success. With a commitment to holistic education, balancing academic excellence with a multitude of co-curricular opportunities, St Margaret's College encourages students and staff to discover their passions and be the very best they can be.

The Role

We are currently seeking a motivated and enthusiastic Psychology teacher who is keen to join our Humanities and Social Sciences department. The Psychology Teacher needs to meet and extend the needs of their learners through strong pedagogical practice including digital technology, blended learning and differentiation. Psychology and other Social Science subject experience is required. IB Psychology would be advantageous.

Applicants must be able to start on 20 January 2025 and have knowledge of and experience with the New Zealand Curriculum. They must commit to the vision and values of the College and demonstrate a commitment to be part of a well-resourced and supportive environment with motivated students who are keen to learn.

A Position Description is available on our website:

<https://stmargarets.school.nz/explore-our-college/meet-our-people/work-at-smc/>

To apply, please send your CV and application letter by email to Chris Walker, Head of Humanities and Social Sciences faculty at recruitment@stmargarets.school.nz

Applications close on 22 September 2024 at midnight.