Balanced foundations, bright futures.

Psychology and Social Studies Teacher Full-time, Permanent

St Margaret's College offers a unique education for girls from Year 0 through to Year 13, both boarding and day girls. We offer students a dual academic pathway with NCEA and the International Baccalaureate Diploma and a strong emphasis on wellbeing and pastoral care as well as academic success. With a commitment to holistic education, balancing academic excellence with a multitude of co-curricular opportunities, St Margaret's College encourages students and staff to discover their passions and be the very best they can be.

The Role – Psychology & Social Studies Teacher

Are you ready to spark curiosity, challenge thinking, and inspire the next generation of learners? We are seeking an innovative teacher to join our Humanities and Social Sciences faculty, teaching Senior Years Psychology and Years 8–10 Social Studies.

This is more than just a teaching role - it's an opportunity to shape young minds, foster a love of learning, and bring your passion for both Psychology and Social Studies into a vibrant, collaborative environment.

What we're looking for:

- Enthusiasm for teaching Senior Psychology and Years 8–10 Social Studies
- Strong pedagogy, with confidence in digital tools, blended learning, and differentiated approaches to support every learner
- Deep understanding of and experience with the NCEA in Psychology and Social Studies, across multiple year levels
- IB Psychology experience (an advantage, but not essential)

Why join us?

- Start date: 26 January 2026
- A chance to work with motivated students and dedicated colleagues who value creativity, collaboration, and high standards
- A College that offers a well-resourced and innovative environment that supports the professional growth of its teachers
- An environment where your expertise and ideas will truly make an impact

If you're excited by the idea of bringing Psychology and Social Studies to life, and committed to our College's vision and values, we'd love to hear from you. Please include your primary and supporting subjects in your application.
